-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 30 July 2008.
2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 1-3, 6, 8-16, 18-21, 24, 26-34, 36-39, 42, 44-52 and 54-57 is/are pending in the application.
4a) Of the above claim(s) 3 and 39 is/are withdrawn from consideration.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 2, 6, 8-16, 18-21, 24, 26-34, 36-38, 42, 44-52 and 54-57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lefebvre (5,108,418) in view of Thomas (7,147,649). Lefebvre discloses a filter comprising a plurality of primary struts (3) having the claimed curved configuration, the struts having anchoring hooks (6 and 7) at the distal ends and they are connected at a hub (4) at the proximal ends. However, Lefebvre does not disclose secondary struts connected to the primary struts. Attention is drawn to Thomas, who teaches secondary struts (22-1c' and 22-1c", see figure 3C) connected to the primary struts (see figure 1A) to help center and anchor the filter in the blood vessel. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have included secondary struts on the primary struts of Lefebvre in the manner taught by Thomas to help center and anchor the filter in the blood vessel. The free ends of the secondary struts to not contact the primary struts, and there are two secondary struts (22-1c' and 22-1c") connected to each individual primary strut.

3. Regarding claims 11, 13, 15, 16, 29, 31, 33, 34, 47, 49, 51 and 52, the combination of Lefebvre and Thomas does not disclose the diameter of the primary and secondary struts, the filter expanded diameter, and the filter length. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to size the filter struts and length as claimed, since it has been held that discovering an optimum value of a result effective variable involves only routine skill in the art. In re Boesch, 617 F.2d 272, 205 USPQ 215 (CCPA 1980).

4. Regarding claims 12, 14, 30, 32, 48 and 50, Lefebvre further does not disclose the struts are superelastic. Attention is again drawn to Thomas, who teaches making filter struts superelastic (see column 5, lines 22-24) to make the struts extremely flexible. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have made the filter struts of a superelastic material in the manner taught by Thomas to make the struts extremely flexible.

5. Regarding claims 9, 27 and 45, Lefebvre further does not disclose a retrieval hook on the hub of the filter. Attention is again drawn to Thomas, who teaches a retrieval hook (16) disposed on a hub to allow the filter to be easily retrieved when it is no longer needed. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have included a retrieval hook on the filter in the manner taught by Thomas to allow the filter to be easily retrieved when no longer needed.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 20 and 38 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

8. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Ryan Severson whose telephone number is (571)272-3142. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday 8:30-5:00.
